The applicant declares that (i) all information provided above is truthful, complete, accurate and correct, and (ii) the applicant has not failed to provide any information which, if the agent or landlord had known of such information, they would not have approved the application.

No agreement of lease shall be deemed to exist between the landlord and the applicant until the landlord has signed a written lease, or the agent has signed a written lease on behalf of the landlord.

PERMISSIONS

The applicant agrees and allows the agent to contact, request and obtain information at any time and from any credit provider (or potential credit provider) or registered credit bureau, to assess the behaviour, profile, payment patterns, indebtedness, whereabouts and creditworthiness of the applicant as potential tenant.

Subject to the agent complying with the Protection of Personal Information Act, Number 4 of 2013 ("POPI") (to the extent applicable), the applicant consents to the agent disclosing, accessing, storing, screening and processing his or her personal information, as defined in POPI.

On condition that this application is successful, the applicant agrees that the agency may send payment profile and related data of the tenancy of this property to any registered credit bureau.
